

"to julia"
by classmate Jeff Henderson

Sometimes people move on. It's not "supposed" to happen, nor does anyone want it to. Sometimes though, it just happens. Julia left our midst suddenly, almost as suddenly it seems as she entered all our lives. She was a gifted, intelligent, and beautiful young woman, and her friendship will not soon be forgotten. Her character touched the lives of many, and her compassion will save the lives of even more. Julia may have left the physical world, but there's a little of her still in all of us. I would hope that we can treasure even more now what friendships and community we still have. Go in peace Julia.
